Summary of the Event

At HRPIPER, the establishment of the "Electoral Literacy Board" under the National Service Scheme at the College of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Shirpur, marks a significant step towards creating awareness and promoting the value of the "right to vote" among college students. The primary objective behind setting up this board is to educate and inform students about the significance of voting and elections in our democratic system. On 17th February 2023, a Friday, the Election Literacy Board organized an enlightening awareness lecture titled "Importance of Electoral Literacy for a Strong Democracy" at Patel Hall, Shirpur. The event was graced by the presence of Honorable Mr. Abasaheb Mahajan, the Tehsildar of Shirpur Municipal Corporation. With immense knowledge and experience, Mr. Mahajan delivered a thought-provoking lecture, emphasizing the vital role of an informed voter in shaping the country's future. During his speech, Mr. Mahajan highlighted that the right to vote is enshrined as a fundamental right in the Constitution. He underscored that voting symbolizes freedom and democracy, playing a crucial role in upholding fairness, justice, and the safety of society. His words resonated with the attendees, inspiring them to recognize the power they possess as voters to contribute to a better nation.

	Furthermore, Honorable Mr. Deepak Patil, the Voter Center Level Officer, provided guidance to the students regarding the registration process for the voter list. He also demonstrated the procedure for linking mobile numbers to Aadhaar cards and voter cards, simplifying the access and participation of students in the electoral process. The presence of Election Naib Tehsildar, Mr. R. P. Kumawat, and Revenue Assistant, Mr. Pradeep Pardeshi, further enriched the lecture, enhancing the overall learning experience for the attendees. The awareness lecture organized by the Election Literacy Board at HRPIPER served as a platform to empower students with knowledge and understanding of their electoral rights and responsibilities. By facilitating the registration process and offering valuable insights, the event encouraged active participation and engagement of students in the democratic process, ensuring a brighter future for our nation.

During the same keynote address by Prof. Ram Prasad Chaudhary and Prof. Pramod Kumar Zha. This was followed by plenary sessions by Prof. Hari Datta Battarai and Dr. Rabbie Hart. After the lunch break technical sessions (oral presentations) by the participants were conducted at three separate places. Each technical session was of 15 minutes duration followed by Q and A. Each of the technical sessions was chaired and moderated by the eminent personalities in the relevant field. During the same, 18 oral presentations were conducted. Fortunately, the technical session at Imperial Hall was started by my oral presentation. It was chaired by Dr. Rajendra Gyawali and moderated by Mr. Anjani Adhikari. As our research was concerned with bioprospecting it was nicely discussed and appreciated by the audience including budding as well as eminent researchers in the field. This may be due to the less inclination of nepalian researchers towards applied research over the basic plant research.
