In charge	Mr. M. S. Shaikh/Mr. D. M. Patil/Dr. R. S. Tade
Date of Activity	25/07/2023
Brief Report on the Outcome of activity	A person who has greatly contributed to interpersonal communication motivation theories is Abraham Maslow. His hierarchy of needs explicitly explains why people are motivated to do certain things. It went as far, as to create strict needs that people are driven by in a lifetime. The theory of reasons for communication by Maslow states that people are genetically predisposed to act in a specific and concrete way that is centered on satisfying physiological and psychological needs. One of the most important contributions of Abraham Maslow is the hierarchy of needs.

The program was chaired by the head of the alumni association, Dr. R. E. Mutha, and Dr. R. S. Tade, Mr. M. R. Mahajan, Mr. V. S. Bagul and other professors were present. The main objective of the lecture was to inspire entrepreneurship, creativity, and innovation in our students in today's age of competition. In his lecture, Ms. Yukta Wankhedhe begin with an overview of the United Kingdom's higher education system, including universities, colleges, and different types of degrees available. Likewise, discuss the advantages of pursuing higher education in the UK, such as academic excellence, a diverse student population, and strong links to industry. In brief, information about student visas, work permits, and immigration regulations for international students might be covered. Information about on-campus and off-campus accommodation options, as well as the overall student experience, could be included. Eventually, lecture may conclude with a question-and-answer session where attendees can ask specific questions about studying in the UK. A total of 53

Objective/Topic	Interpersonal communication motivation is one of the key factors that play a significant role in why people communicate and what they accomplish in their life.
In charge/Convener	Mr. D. M. Patil & Ms. A. Y. Pathan
Brief Report on the Outcome of activity	A person who has greatly contributed to interpersonal communication motivation theories is Abraham Maslow. His hierarchy of needs explicitly explains why people are motivated to do certain things. It went as far, as to create strict needs that people are driven by in a lifetime. The theory of reasons for communication by Maslow states that people are genetically predisposed to act in a specific and concrete way that is centered on satisfying physiological and psychological needs. One of the most important contributions of Abraham Maslow is the hierarchy of needs.

Brief Report on Activity	Ms. Gayatri M. Patel alumni of the H. R. Patel Institute of Pharmaceutical Education and Research in Shirpur gave a lecture "Clinical regulatory writing &amp; GPAT" held on held on 03rd November 2023 Friday at 1.00 pm. The program was chaired by the head of the alumni association, Dr. R. E. Mutha, and Mr. M. R. Mahajan and other professors were present. The main objective of the lecture was to inspire entrepreneurship, creativity, and innovation in our students in today's age of competition. The lecture highlighted the critical role of regulatory writing in the pharmaceutical and healthcare industry, emphasizing its significance in the development, approval, and post-market surveillance of pharmaceutical products. The speaker elaborated on the various documents and reports involved in clinical regulatory writing, such as Investigational New Drug (IND) applications, New Drug Applications (NDAs), and Common Technical Document (CTD) submissions. Furthermore, the lecture emphasized the importance of these skills for GPAT preparation, as they form a vital component of the pharmaceutical curriculum. It sheds light on how a strong grasp of clinical regulatory writing can benefit students aiming to excel in the GPAT examination, which is an essential step in pursuing a career in pharmacy. Lastly, Ms. Gayatri M. Patel answered many questions from the students. A total of 55 attendees were present for this session. Lastly, Mr. Mahendra Mahajan hosted and thanked the program.

Brief Report on the Outcome of activity	Competitive examinations are pivotal assessments that determine entry into various educational institutes or career paths. They require rigorous preparation and a strategic approach. The outcomes of competitive examinations have shown a mixed trend over the past year. While success rates have varied across exams, it is evident that those who adopt comprehensive preparation methods tend to perform better. The following points highlight the general outcomes: Success Rates: Competitive examinations continue to be challenging, with success rates hovering between 10% to 20% on average. This underscores the need for focused preparation. Performance Variation: Results have shown significant performance variation across different subjects and sections within examinations. Candidates often excel in areas of their strengths but struggle in others. Preparation Impact: Candidates who engage in structured preparation methods have exhibited higher success rates compared to those relying solely on traditional study practices. Effective preparation is a key determinant of success in competitive examinations. Here are some recommended methods based on recent trends and successful candidates' experiences: Understanding the Syllabus: Thoroughly grasping the syllabus is foundational. It helps in creating a roadmap for preparation, focusing on essential topics and allocating time wisely.

Innovation Ideas and Inauguration Business Ideas Box by Shlok Sonawane is a book that likely presents a collection of innovative ideas for various sectors along with strategies for inaugurating and implementing these ideas into successful businesses. The summary of the book would include:

1. Introduction to Innovation: The book likely starts with an introduction to the concept of innovation, emphasizing its importance in today's rapidly changing business landscape. It may discuss the need for creative thinking and problem-solving skills to stay competitive.

2. Innovative Ideas Across Industries: Sonawane might present a diverse range of innovative ideas spanning different industries such as technology, healthcare, agriculture, education, and more. These ideas could range from new products and services to process improvements and business models.

3. Case Studies and Examples: The book may include case studies and real-world examples to illustrate how innovative ideas have been successfully implemented by existing businesses. This can provide inspiration and practical insights for readers looking to pursue their own entrepreneurial ventures.

4. Inauguration Strategies: Sonawane likely provides guidance on how to effectively inaugurate a new business or launch a new product/service. This could involve marketing strategies, branding techniques, networking tips, and other tactics to generate buzz and attract customers.

5. Risk Management and Adaptability: Recognizing that innovation inherently involves risk, the book might also discuss strategies for managing risks and navigating challenges along the way. This could include advice on staying adaptable and agile in the face of uncertainty.

6. Scaling and Growth: Finally, the book may touch upon strategies for scaling a business and achieving sustainable growth over time. This could involve expanding into new markets, forging strategic partnerships, and continuously innovating to meet evolving customer needs.

Overall, "Innovation Ideas and Inauguration Business Ideas Box" by Shlok Sonawane likely serves as a comprehensive guide for aspiring entrepreneurs and business leaders seeking to harness the power of innovation to drive success in their ventures.

"Herbal Utan Preparation Startup" by Ms. Manasi Choudhary is a venture that likely focuses on creating and marketing herbal-based products for skincare, wellness, or other related purposes. Here's a summary of what such a startup might entail:

- 1. Introduction to Herbal Utan Preparation: Choudhary's startup likely begins with an introduction to the concept of herbal-based products and their benefits. This could include discussions on the growing consumer preference for natural and organic ingredients in skincare and wellness products.
- 2. Product Development: The startup likely invests significant effort in developing high-quality herbal formulations. This involves sourcing natural ingredients, conducting research on their properties and benefits, and formulating products that are effective and safe for consumers.

3. Brand Identity and Positioning: Establishing a strong brand identity is crucial for success in the skincare and wellness industry. Choudhary's startup likely focuses on creating a brand that resonates with consumers seeking natural and sustainable alternatives to mainstream products. This could involve branding strategies that emphasize the use of herbal ingredients, eco-friendly packaging, and a commitment to ethical practices.
4. Marketing and Distribution: To reach its target audience, the startup likely employs various marketing strategies, including digital marketing, social media engagement, influencer partnerships, and participation in wellness events and exhibitions. Distribution channels may include online platforms, retail partnerships, and direct sales channels.
5. Quality Assurance and Compliance: Given the importance of consumer safety and trust in the skincare industry, Choudhary's startup likely places a strong emphasis on quality assurance and compliance with regulatory standards. This involves rigorous testing of ingredients and finished products to ensure they meet quality and safety requirements.
6. Scaling and Growth: As the startup gains traction and builds a loyal customer base, it may focus on scaling operations and expanding its product offerings. This could involve launching new product lines, entering new markets, or diversifying into related categories within the skincare and wellness sector.

Overall, "Herbal Utan Preparation Startup" by Manasi Choudhary represents an exciting venture in the burgeoning market for natural and herbal-based skincare and wellness products. With a focus on quality, innovation, and consumer-centric values, the startup aims to carve out a niche and establish itself as a trusted player in the industry.

"Concluding the session on innovation and entrepreneurship by Dr. Bari Sir."

Importance of Innovation: Dr. Bari likely emphasized the critical role that innovation plays in driving economic growth, solving societal challenges, and creating value in today's competitive landscape. Innovation is not just about creating new products or services but also about finding creative solutions to existing problems.

1. Entrepreneurial Mindset: The session likely highlighted the importance of cultivating an entrepreneurial mindset, which involves being proactive, resilient, and adaptable to change. Dr. Bari may have discussed how individuals can develop this mindset by embracing risk-taking, learning from failures, and seizing opportunities.
2. Creativity and Problem-Solving: Innovation often stems from creativity and the ability to think outside the box. Dr. Bari may have encouraged attendees to cultivate their creative skills and approach problems with a fresh perspective. This could involve techniques such as brainstorming, design thinking, and collaboration.
3. Identifying Opportunities: Successful entrepreneurs are adept at identifying market opportunities and capitalizing on them. Dr. Bari likely discussed strategies for recognizing unmet needs, spotting trends, and conducting market research to validate business ideas.
4. Execution and Implementation: Having a great idea is only the first step; execution is key to turning that idea into a successful venture. Dr. Bari may have emphasized the importance of effective execution, which involves strategic planning, resource allocation, and continuous iteration based on feedback.

5. Building a Support Network: Entrepreneurship can be a challenging journey, and having a strong support network can make all the difference. Dr. Bari likely encouraged attendees to seek mentors, advisors, and collaborators who can provide guidance, support, and valuable connections.
6. Ethics and Social Responsibility: In today's interconnected world, entrepreneurs have a responsibility to consider the broader impact of their actions. Dr. Bari may have stressed the importance of ethical business practices, sustainability, and social responsibility in entrepreneurship.
7. Continuous Learning and Adaptation: Finally, Dr. Bari likely emphasized that innovation and entrepreneurship are ongoing processes that require continuous learning and adaptation. Successful entrepreneurs are constantly seeking new knowledge, refining their skills, and staying agile in response to changing market dynamics.

ACTIVITY REPORT

Submitted to

The Principal,

H. R. Patel Institute of Pharmaceutical Education & Research, Shirpur

Name of activity	"Eco-Friendly & economic applications of solubilizing properties of safe & economic solids in various fields of pharmacy"
Organizers	H. R. Patel Institute of Pharmaceutical Education & Research, Shirpur
Venue	Online Mode	Date :26/03/2024	No. of Participating students
Name of speaker	Dr. Rajesh Kumar Maheshwari		66
Objective/Topic	The objective is to explore how the solubilizing properties of safe and economic solids can be harnessed to develop eco-friendly, economically viable, and efficient pharmaceutical solutions across various fields of pharmacy.
In charge/Convener	Dr. L. R. Zavar, Mr. D. M. Patil & Ms. A. Y. Pathan
Brief Report on the Outcome of activity	The outcome report demonstrates the feasibility and potential benefits of incorporating solubilizing properties of safe and economic solids into various fields of pharmacy, with a focus on eco-friendly and cost-effective solutions that promote sustainability and efficiency in pharmaceutical practices. The research identified safe and economically viable solid substances with solubilizing properties, offering potential alternatives to traditional solvents and excipients used in pharmaceutical formulations. Through experimentation and formulation development, eco-friendly pharmaceutical formulations were created by leveraging the solubilizing properties of these safe and economic solids. These formulations aimed to reduce environmental impact by minimizing the use of hazardous chemicals and promoting sustainability. The utilization of safe and economic solids in pharmaceutical formulations proved to be cost-effective, offering viable alternatives that could potentially reduce manufacturing costs and overall production expenses.

Respected Sir,

H. R. Patel Institute of Pharmaceutical Education & Research, Shirpur caters UG, PG, and Ph.D program in pharmacy. The institute is NBA recredited B. Pharm course (2022-2025) & NAAC accredited with 'A' grade, an ISO 9001:2008 certified & NIRF ranked institute approved by AICTE, PCI, Delhi, Govt of Maharashtra, Mumbai affiliated to KBCNMU, Jalgaon. The institute was established in 2004 to add wings to aspiring candidates to excel in the global healthcare system. To update the current advances in pharmaceutical sciences & soft skills, the institute is regularly organising guest lectures of recognised personalities from academics & industry.

In the context, we are pleased to invite you as a resource person to deliver an expert talk on gap analysis & bridging the gap in regular curriculum & industry perspective with current students & faculty members. It will be a highly enlightening & learning experience for all of us.

Kindly accept this invitation & acknowledge the same with your probable available date & topic.

Thanking You.

Organizers	H. R. Patel Institute of Pharmaceutical Education & Research, Shirpur
Venue	Online Mode via Google Meet & YouTube Date:04/05/2024		No. of Participating students  100
Name of speaker	Mrs. Deepa Agrawal
Objective/Topic	The objective is to equip women with the necessary skills, confidence, and support networks to navigate and overcome gender barriers, including leadership training, negotiation skills workshops, and fostering a supportive peer community.
In charge/Convener	Mr. D. M. Patil, Mr. M. S. Shaikh & Ms. A. Y. Pathan
Brief Report on the Outcome of activity	Gender diversity in corporate leadership remains a persistent challenge despite increased awareness and efforts towards inclusion. This report aims to explore the obstacles faced by women in advancing to leadership positions within corporate settings and proposes strategies for overcoming these barriers. Analysis reveals several barriers hindering women's progress in corporate leadership roles, including implicit bias, lack of mentorship opportunities, unequal access to resources, and entrenched workplace cultures that perpetuate gender stereotypes. Research indicates that gender-diverse leadership teams lead to better decision-making, increased innovation, and enhanced financial performance. However, the underrepresentation of women in senior roles limits the realization of these benefits. Implementing Diversity and Inclusion Initiatives: Companies with robust diversity and inclusion programs demonstrate higher employee engagement and retention rates. Establishing Mentorship and Sponsorship Programs: Providing women with access to mentors and sponsors who can offer guidance, advocacy, and opportunities for advancement is critical.

Promoting Flexible Work Arrangements: Flexible work policies enable better work-life balance for women, facilitating career progression without sacrificing family responsibilities.

Advancing women in leadership requires a multifaceted approach that addresses structural barriers, promotes cultural change, and empowers women with the skills and support needed to succeed. By implementing inclusive practices, fostering collaboration, and advocating for gender equality, organizations can create environments where all individuals have equal opportunities to thrive and contribute to corporate success.

Subject; Invitation for expert talk.....

Respected Sir,

H. R. Patel Institute of Pharmaceutical Education & Research, Shirpur caters to UG, PG, and Ph.D. programs in pharmacy. The institute is NBA reaccredited B. Pharm course (2022-2025) & NAAC accredited with an 'A' grade, an ISO 9001:2008 certified & NIRF ranked institute approved by AICTE, PCI, Delhi, Govt of Maharashtra, Mumbai affiliated to KBCNMU, Jalgaon. The institute was established in 2004 to add wings to aspiring candidates to excel in the global healthcare system. To update the current advances in pharmaceutical sciences & soft skills, the institute is regularly organizing guest lectures of recognized personalities from academics & industry.

In this context, we are pleased to invite you as a resource person to deliver an expert talk on gap analysis & bridging the gap in regular curriculum & industry perspective with current students & faculty members. It will be a highly enlightening & learning experience for all of us.

Kindly accept this invitation & acknowledge the same with your probable available date & topic.

Thanking You.
