Brief Report on activity	An Ayurveda Camp is a health and wellness event that focuses on the ancient Indian system of medicine known as Ayurveda. Typically organized in community settings or wellness retreats, these camps aim to promote holistic well-being by offering traditional Ayurvedic therapies, consultations, and educational sessions. Participants have the opportunity to engage with experienced Ayurvedic practitioners who assess their individual constitutions (doshas) and provide personalized recommendations for diet, lifestyle, and herbal remedies. Ayurveda, rooted in a holistic approach to health, emphasizes the balance of mind, body, and spirit. The camp often includes activities such as yoga, meditation, and workshops on Ayurvedic principles, fostering a comprehensive understanding of this natural healing system. Attendees gain insights into preventive healthcare, herbal treatments, and lifestyle practices that align with Ayurvedic principles, fostering a deeper connection with their overall well-being. Ayurveda Camps serve as immersive experiences that empower individuals to take an active role in enhancing their health and vitality through the timeless wisdom of Ayurveda.

Brief Report on activity	National call for citizen-led 1 hour labor donation for cleanliness on October 1, 2023 at 10 am. Nine years ago, Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi called for cleanliness in 2014. Citizens from all walks of life responded with great enthusiasm to take ownership for a clean India. On the occasion of Gandhi Jayanti, the Prime Minister has made a unique appeal to the countrymen to take action. On the eve of Babu's birth anniversary, all the students and teaching and non-teaching staff together gave 'Swachhanjali' to him. As per the theme Swachhta Hi Seva Abhiyaan, "On 1st October i.e. Sunday at 10 am a big program was organized on cleanliness. At that time, the students and teachers and non-teaching staff helped in this cleanliness drive from time to time, in which they cleaned the college premises.

योजना विभाग तर्फे स्वच्छ
भारत अभियान अंतर्गत एक
तारीख, एक तास व एक
साथ श्रमदान कार्यक्रम साजरा
करण्यात आला.

स्वच्छ भारत अभियाना
अंतर्गत एक तारीख, एक तास,
एक साथ श्रमदान कार्यक्रमाच्या
माध्यमातून विद्यार्थ्यांनी आपल्या
वैयक्तिक स्वच्छतेसह, घर व
परिसर स्वच्छ ठेवून पालकांना
स्वच्छता कार्यात नेहमीच मदत
करावी. सोबतच सर्वांनी मनाची

स्वच्छता देखील करावी या
उत्की प्रमाणे आणि स्वच्छता
कार्य केवळ एक दिवसासाठी
न ठेवता सातत्यपूर्ण ठेवल्यास
आरोग्य स्वस्थ राहते, सोबतच
मन प्रसन्न राहते या प्रेरणेतून
आणि पंतप्रधान नरेंद्र मोदी
यांनी केलेल्या आवाहनानुसार
महाविद्यालयाच्या परिसरात
स्वच्छता मोहीम राबविण्यात
आली त्यातून महाविद्यालयाच्या
सभोवतालचा परिसर स्वच्छ
करण्यात आला. याप्रसंगी
प्राचार्य डॉ. एस. बी. बारी,
प्रा. पी. बी. निनावे, प्रा. राहुल
ताडे, प्रा. नारायण पवार,
केतन पाटील, एस. डी. बागुल
उपस्थित होते.

Outcome

As a result, swachhata became a national behavior and Swachh Bharat Mission became a household name.

collaboration with the Department of Pharmaceutical Chemistry, Department of Pharmaceutics and Pharmacy Club Shirpur at H. R. Patel Institute of Pharmaceutical Education and Research (HRPIPER). World AIDS Day is celebrated annually on 1st of December and its objective is dedicated to raising awareness about the HIV/AIDS pandemic, commemorating those who have lost their lives to the illness, and supporting those living with HIV. The celebration began with a lively rally, which commenced from the college campus to karwand naka circle area and street play in between to know the insights of AIDS with demo patient and doctor interaction along with the community then return to college. The event saw a large turnout, including pharmacists, pharmacy students, healthcare professionals, and interested community members.

The World AIDS Day celebration with a rally and street play was a resounding success, raising awareness about the HIV/AIDS its transmission, safety health hazards, its detection and mode of treatment. The event received positive feedback from both participants and the public, underscoring the importance of recognizing and appreciating the efforts of pharmacists for raising awareness of AIDS. This celebration served as a reminder that AIDS can be prevented by safety measures and AIDS patient should be treated as normal rather than its discrimination and disgrace to him/her. It encouraged individuals to seek out more information and safety measures regarding AIDS.

Outcome of event	The outcomes of the World AIDS Day Celebration organized by NSS and the Department of Pharmaceutical Chemistry, Department of Pharmaceutics with Pharmacy club at HRPIPER on December 01, 2023, were extremely positive. The event successfully achieved its core objectives. Firstly, Awareness and Education: The rally had raised awareness about the HIV/AIDS. Secondly the digrace and discrimination of AIDS patient should be avoided & public should treat patients as normal one was prominently explained. Another to promote safe practice and if any suspicious symptoms observed there should be early detection and early start of treatment was demonstrated through charts. Lastly the importance of accecible treatment with early advocacy were proved.

Brief Report on activity	Kavyitri Bahinabai Chaudhari and H.R. Patel College of Pharmacy, Shirpur, Dhule district, jointly organized a National Service Scheme Special Labor Camp at Dattak Gaav, Lauki. The duration of this labor camp was from February 5 to February 11, 2024. On February 5, 2024, at 9 a.m., volunteers departed from Shirpur to the venue, known as Lauki. Upon arrival at the campsite, which was the Government Ashram School in Lauki, volunteers cleaned the premises and prepared for the inauguration ceremony. The inaugural function was graced by the presence of Mr. Ashok Hiralal Kalal (Chairman of the Vidya Vihar Society, Shirpur) as the presiding officer. The chief guest for the inauguration was Mrs. Akkabai Bhimsingh, the Sarpanch of the village. The program was attended by various dignitaries, including Dr. S.B. Bari, Principal of H.R. Patel College of Pharmacy, Dr. Gopal Suresh Saindane, Principal of Lauki Ashram School, former Deputy Sarpanch Ashok Rajput, President of the Untouchability Eradication Committee Navnath Rajput, Gram Panchayat member Badulal Banjara, former Deputy Sarpanch Bhaskar Patil, and several other respected individuals from the village. Mr. Ashok Hiralal Kalal, as the chairman of the Vidya Vihar Society, Shirpur, expressed his views on the development of Lauki village. He also provided valuable guidance on how this camp could bring about positive changes in the civic and educational spheres of the village. Additionally, he encouraged the villagers to embrace the various opportunities provided by this camp. Under the auspices of the National Service Scheme, Program officer Ketan Patil guided students of the ashram school regarding Special camp. Mr. Vinod Patel also expressed gratitude for his display of appreciation. The inauguration ceremony of the Special camp was a grand success with overwhelming enthusiasm. Subsequently, volunteers of the National Service Scheme took the initiative to maintain cleanliness in the surroundings of the ashram school. During the afternoon session of the Special camp, under the program "Capable Youth, Strong India," Mr. Vinod Patel will be present as the chief speaker. He addressed all the present volunteers and students with the message "Reading is essential." He emphasized the importance of reading in gaining knowledge and acquiring new insights. He also guided volunteers on how reading books can broaden their horizons and help them learn new things. Mr. Vinod Patel was honored with a memento, certificate of appreciation, and a college calendar. In the evening at 4:30, the volunteers enjoyed playing outdoor games after having a light meal. At 7:15 in the evening, they savored their dinner. Following that, around 7:30, the volunteers engaged in discussions on various social topics and shared their opinions. Later at 9:30, they performed prayers and lit lamps, marking the beginning of the first day of the "Labor Orientation Camp."

The second day of the "NSS Special camp," which was February 6, 2024, began at 5:00 in the morning when the volunteers individually completed their personal hygiene routines. By 7:00, all volunteers gathered together for a "Cleanliness Campaign" and practiced various yoga postures along with prayers. Following this, from 7:00 to 10:00 in the morning, the volunteers engaged in labor work. At 10:00, they attended to their personal cleanliness again. At 2:30 in the afternoon, under the program "Skilled Youth, Capable India," Mr. Narayan Pawar addressed the volunteers on the topic of "National Service Scheme - The Need of the Hour." During the interaction, Mr. Narayan Pawar also enlightened the volunteers about self-defense techniques like Judo and Karate for self-protection, thus encouraging them to prioritize self-defense. Then, from 3:30 to 4:30, Mr. S.N. Patil provided guidance on how the youth should be today. Between 4:30 and 5:00, all volunteers enjoyed a tea break, and from 5:00 to 7:00, they participated in various outdoor games like volleyball, football, and lagori for the betterment of their health. In the evening, all the volunteers tasted the food between seven and eight. After that, at eight o'clock, the program of Swargandha began. In this program, all the volunteers enthusiastically participated, which created a festive atmosphere among the villagers, fostering a sense of camaraderie. Then, at ten o'clock, the volunteers lit lamps. In this way, the second day of the labor camp concluded with great enthusiasm. The third day of the "National Service Scheme" Special camp, which is February 7th, began at five in the morning, with all the volunteers starting the day. Between half-past seven and six, all the volunteers and villagers gathered in the playground together. Under the guidance of Mr. Suhas Aage, they practiced yoga postures as well as strong postures. This included postures such as the Mridungasana, Bhadrasana, Vrikshasana, Simhasana, Veerabhadrasana, and Makarasana. Between six and seven in the morning, the morning ferry arrived in the village. After that, between seven and eight, everyone tasted light food. The volunteers went to the village to explain "Elimination of Superstition" to the citizens for awareness. Elimination of superstition - the necessity of time was addressed through this play. Through this play, citizens were made to understand what superstition means and it was explained to them about the irrational beliefs. Anuja Yevate conducted the direction of this play. Through this drama, citizens were made to understand the previous scientific perspective on superstition. This play conveyed the message to citizens not to fall prey to superstition and to become ideal citizens of India. "Under the auspices of the 'Saksham Yuva Samarth Bharat' initiative, a noon session was conducted where Shri. Gopal Bhide addressed the volunteers and citizens, raising awareness about 'Recognizing Cyber Crimes'. Experts elucidated various aspects of cybercrimes to the volunteers and also assisted in addressing their queries. Following this, in the second phase of the daily routine under the 'Saksham Yuva Samarth Bharat' program, prominent speaker Mr. Champalal Patil delivered invaluable guidance on the topic 'Today's Youth: Recognition, Responsibility'. Subsequently, as part of the National Service Scheme, volunteers engaged in field sports such as Lagori, Football, Volleyball, and Sack Race. From seven to eight, volunteers gathered together to relish delicious meals. Entertainment ensued with an Antakshari game, followed by various social dances, fostering enthusiasm among the volunteers towards social dancing. At ten o'clock, volunteers concluded the day with prayers and a candle lighting ceremony, expressing gratitude. This way, the 'National Service Scheme' Special Camp concluded with immense enthusiasm on the third day. The fourth day of the Special Camp, which fell on February 8th, saw sessions on health awareness by Dr. Rahul Tade and addressing of PCOD issues. These talks provided valuable information to the volunteers. Between 3:30 to 4:30, Professor Paresh Shah delivered a lecture on the importance of dispelling superstitions and showcased various experiments. On the fifth day of the special Culture Camp, dated February 9th, Friday, at five in the morning, all volunteers woke up and completed their personal tasks. Between 5:30 to 6:30, under the guidance of Mr. Thakur, prayers and various yoga asanas and pranayama were practiced. Following this, from 6:30 to 7, all volunteers had tea. From seven to ten, volunteers participated in community service, cleaning the primary school and surrounding areas in the village. From eleven to eleven-thirty, all volunteers participated in self-hygiene. As part of the National Service Scheme, a women's health check-up camp was organized."

The health check-up camp was specially organized for the women and girls from the village, where health information of local women was recorded and the results of the check-up were also communicated.

On the fifth day of the camp, during the second session, under the program "Saksham Yuva Samarth Bharat," Mrs. Kalyani Rajput, the chief speaker from the School of Pharmaceutical Sciences, addressed the volunteers on the subject of speech as an art. This led to awareness among the volunteers about public speaking. Mr. P.B. Rajput also addressed the volunteers with humor and encouragement. From 4:30 to 5 in the evening, the volunteers had tea, followed by various outdoor sports such as football, kho-kho, and tag from 5 to 7 in the evening, which proved beneficial for health. From 7 to 8 in the evening, everyone gathered for dinner. From 8 to 9:30 in the evening, they indulged in activities like antakshari, passing the ball, musical performances, and singing, which brought joy and entertainment. At 10 at night, all the volunteers lit lamps and prayed to God, expressing gratitude. Thus, the fifth day of the "National Service Scheme" camp concluded successfully. On February 10, 2024, the volunteers woke up at 5 in the morning and engaged in beneficial yoga postures and breathing exercises from 5:30 to 6:30 in the morning. Citizens also enthusiastically participated in these yoga sessions. After the morning procession in the village, the volunteers had tea and water at 8. Then, from 8:30 to 12:30, they engaged in cleanliness activities in the vicinity, which raised awareness about cleanliness among the villagers. Later, at 11, the volunteers cleaned themselves. From 11:30 to 2 in the afternoon, they enjoyed a delicious and satisfying meal and took rest. Under the "Saksham Yuva Samarth Bharat" program, on the seventh day, Honorable Dveta Didi Patel visited the camp. In the morning, Didi reached the government hostel in Lauki, where the chief teacher of the government hostel school, Dr. Gopal Saindane, and others welcomed her with a bouquet. Then, as part of the National Service Scheme, an event was organized, during which the coordination professor of the National Service Scheme, Ketan Patil, Professor Shoeb Maniyar, Professor Dhanshree Chaudhari, Professor Kalyani Rajput, Sports Teacher Yogesh Thakur, Librarian Vinod Patel, and all the volunteers were welcomed with flower garlands and applause. During this time, lectures were organized to ensure the well-being of the volunteers. Information about many other programs was also provided to the volunteers. Dveta Didi Patel announced that the volunteers would receive dinner from them that night. At 2:30 in the afternoon, the first phase of the "Saksham Yuva Samarth Bharat" program began, during which Dr. Jaya Jana provided guidance to the students on challenges ahead. In the second phase, Mrs. Sonal Shah addressed the volunteers. Also, CBC screening camp was organized on this day, where positive responses were received from the women of Lauki village. A cultural program was organized for the students of the government school in Lauki under the National Service Scheme, where all the volunteers actively participated. In this cultural program, professors Dhanshree Chaudhari, Yogesh Thakur, Shoeb Maniyar, Ketan Patil from HR Patel Institute of Pharmaceutical Education and Research, Shirpur, were present. Then, the volunteers had tea. From 8:15 to 9, they played antakshari for entertainment, followed by lighting lamps. Thus, the support day of the camp ended. The seventh day of the camp under the National Service Scheme, which is also the last day, began with prayer, yoga, and meditation from 5 to 7 in the morning. Then, from 7:30 to 10 in the morning, the volunteers carried out self-cleaning and distributed refreshments. After that, the closing ceremony of the National Service Scheme was held with great enthusiasm. Bapuso M.K. Bhamare was the chairman of the closing ceremony, and Dr. S.B. Bari, Principal of the HR Patel Institute of Pharmaceutical Education and Research, along with professors Dhanshree Chaudhari, Shoeb Maniyar, Yogesh Thakur, Librarian Vinod Patel, and all the volunteers were present. In the closing ceremony, volunteers Deep Shinde, Vaishnavi Sonawane, Neeraj Pardeshi, Anuja Yewate shared their experiences gained during the seven days of the camp. Through their experiences, it was evident that hard work was recognized during this special seven-day workshop of the National Service Scheme, which was organized systematically. Bapuso M.K. Bhamare and Principal S.B. Bari praised the efforts of the Program Officer Ketan Patil and the volunteers for the well-organized event.
