Wet Granulation

- More complicated, but is more commonly used. It is necessary for tablets in which the active ingredient and excipients can have different particle sizes.
- It also helps tablets with very spherical particles to bind together, by making them more lumpy in shape.

Continuous manufacturing

(a) Continuous Manufacturing (end-to-end)

(b) Batch Manufacturing

Outcome

To provide a platform for students to share experiences and lessons learned and to promote good practices in adaptation

| Name of Activity | Ayurveda Camp |
| Organizer | H. R. Patel Institute of pharmaceutical Education and Research Shirpur. |
| Venue | Central Library |
| Date of activity | 25/08/23 |
| Objectives | Maintenance and promotion of health, prevention of disease and cure of sickness. Ayurveda's aim is to maintain an equilibrium between body, mind, and soul to increase immunity and enable the body to develop the ability to fight and cure diseases. It helps to repair the body parts and tissues that may have been impacted due to the disease and the corresponding imbalance caused. |
| Guest | Dr. Kuldeep Raj Kohli Ex. Director of Ayush for the Government of Maharashtra |
| In charge | Mr. Ketan B. Patil NSS program officer and Ms. Rajshri T. Dhole Assistant NSS program officer |
| Number of Participant | 15 |
| Brief Report on activity | An Ayurveda Camp is a health and wellness event that focuses on the ancient Indian system of medicine known as Ayurveda. Typically organized in community settings or wellness retreats, these camps aim to promote holistic well-being by offering traditional Ayurvedic therapies, consultations, and educational sessions. Participants have the opportunity to engage with experienced Ayurvedic practitioners who assess their individual constitutions (doshas) and provide personalized recommendations for diet, lifestyle, and herbal remedies. Ayurveda, rooted in a holistic approach to health, emphasizes the balance of mind, body, and spirit. The camp often includes activities such as yoga, meditation, and workshops on Ayurvedic principles, fostering a comprehensive understanding of this natural healing system. Attendees gain insights into preventive healthcare, herbal treatments, and lifestyle practices that align with Ayurvedic principles, fostering a deeper connection with their overall well-being. Ayurveda Camps serve as immersive experiences that empower individuals to take an active role in enhancing their health and vitality through the timeless wisdom of Ayurveda. |

| Organizer | H. R. Patel Institute of pharmaceutical Education and Research Shirpur. |
| Venue | Near Pharmacology Department (HRPIPER) |
| Date of activity | 25 TH Sep 2023 |
| Objectives | To extend social services to society in the role of pharmacists. To raise awareness among participants about their blood group and BMI index, emphasizing the crucial knowledge for emergencies. To enhance the expertise of B.Pharm volunteers in experimentation techniques. To enable learners to differentiate between lab experimentation on themselves and others. To empower learners to correlate theoretical knowledge with practical problem-solving skills. |
| In charge | Dr. P. S. Bafna, Miss R. T. Dhole, Mr. S. S. Agey |
| Number of Participant | 61 |
| Brief Report on activity | On September 25, 2023, the Department of Pharmacology at HRPIPER organized a Blood Group and BMI Detection camp at the college in celebration of Pharmacist Day. The event, held from 10:00 am to 3:00 pm, was conducted under the guidance of the esteemed Principal, Dr. S. B. Bari, and coordinated jointly by Dr. P. S. Bafna (Head of Department), Miss R. T. Dhole and Mr. S. S. Agey. A total of 61 participants actively engaged in the camp, where the actual checking procedures were carried out by expert volunteers from T. Y. B. Pharm. The distinguished presence of Hon. Shri Shantilal Patil and Shri Atul Sisodia (District Secretary and EC Member) added prestige to the occasion, alongside Principal Dr. S. B. Bari (HRPIPER). The entire event was efficiently coordinated by the dedicated efforts of volunteers from T. Y. B. Pharm, namely Mr. R. B. Baviskar and Mr. R. T. Mahajan. Lastly, , all participants were provided with printed label cards indicating their blood group for remembrance and future reference purposes. |

| In charge/Convener | Mr. D. M. Patil & Ms. A. Y. Pathan | |
| Brief Report on the Outcome of activity | A person who has greatly contributed to interpersonal communication motivation theories is Abraham Maslow. His hierarchy of needs explicitly explains why people are motivated to do certain things. It went as far, as to create strict needs that people are driven by in a lifetime. The theory of reasons for communication by Maslow states that people are genetically predisposed to act in a specific and concrete way that is centered on satisfying physiological and psychological needs. One of the most important contributions of Abraham Maslow is the hierarchy of needs. | |

This report aims to explore the obstacles faced by women in advancing to leadership positions within corporate settings and proposes strategies for overcoming these barriers. Analysis reveals several barriers hindering women's progress in corporate leadership roles, including implicit bias, lack of mentorship opportunities, unequal access to resources, and entrenched workplace cultures that perpetuate gender stereotypes. Research indicates that gender-diverse leadership teams lead to better decision-making, increased innovation, and enhanced financial performance. However, the underrepresentation of women in senior roles limits the realization of these benefits. Implementing Diversity and Inclusion Initiatives: Companies with robust diversity and inclusion programs demonstrate higher employee engagement and retention rates. women with access to mentors and sponsors who can offer guidance, advocacy, and opportunities for advancement is critical.

Promoting Flexible Work Arrangements: Flexible work policies enable better work-life balance for women, facilitating career progression without sacrificing family responsibilities.

Advancing women in leadership requires a multifaceted approach that addresses structural barriers, promotes cultural change, and empowers women with the skills and support needed to succeed. By implementing inclusive practices, fostering collaboration, and advocating for gender equality, organizations can create environments where all individuals have equal opportunities to thrive and contribute to corporate success.
