Policy Handbook

FOREWORD

H. R. Patel Institute of Pharmaceutical education and research, Shirpur, commenced in the year 2004 and took shape under Shirpur Education Society's vision. It is a matter of great pride and privilege to be the Principal of such a distinguished institute. In the past eight years we have progressed well and will continue to do so in the near future. To assist the management to execute the policies, this concise handbook has been drawn which covers issues related to human resource management. It defines the rules that staff have to abide by, the code of conduct and their responsibilities toward the institute. It also states the staff rights and motivation policies to encourage them to work to their best potential. I am sure this staff policy document will be useful to all staff. I acknowledge the exemplary team effort by staff members of H. R. Patel Institute of Pharmaceutical education and research, who have assisted in preparation of the Staff Policy Document. Their inputs and ideas have ensured that all points have been covered.

RECRUITMENT POLICY

1. Objective:

Effectiveness of an institution depends on the competence and quality of its human resources. The objective of this policy is to ensure a streamlined recruitment process in identifying and hiring best qualified candidates for all given positions.

2. Applicability

All new recruits in all grades.

3. General Criteria Governing Recruitment

For any post other than Asst. Professors, Associate Professors and Professors, the person recruited should not be above 56 (Fifty-Six) years. The age may be waived in case of Contract Employee but as a rule the maximum age for recruitment of Contract Employee should be one year less than the superannuation age (Fifty-Six years) fixed by the organization.

- The minimum age for recruitment is 18 years. HRPIPER does not permit child labour in any of its establishments nor does it encourage child labour in any of its partner institutions.
- Service of retired hands may be leveraged by the College by giving appropriate contracts with maximum duration of 3 (three) years at a time. Age limit of up to 70 (Seventy) years for teaching staff and 65 (Sixty Five) years for non-teaching staff is recommended. If service is required beyond the recommended age limit, it may be extended on an annual basis.

- HRPIPER reserves the right to do a background check on any person selected for employment.
- Persons selected for appointment should possess sound mental and physical health.

4. Internal Appointments

In order to avoid stagnation of the competent employees and encourage career growth, Management should develop mechanism for creating avenues for growth/promotion.

5. Advertisement

Institute will be responsible for initiating action such as advertising for the vacancy, enlisting Recruitment Consultants, and use of panel of past short listed candidates as may be appropriate after acquiring requisite approvals from governing body. For regular and contract posts, it is mandatory to advertise the vacancies in the newspaper or on Institute's website.

For temporary, project related staff it is not mandatory to follow the advertisement procedures.

- There should be a minimum of 7 days between the date of publication of the advertisement and interview.
- Due to the critical nature of some posts, application time for all positions, in general, may be shortened to accommodate immediate closure of position and such application time may be different for different positions.

6. Short listing

- All applications are scrutinized to ensure that they conform to the minimum requirements of the position.
- Persons given as reference in the application may be contacted to further refine the short list.
- For a single post, from the suitable applications received, an appropriate number will be called for the interview process.
- Intimation for interview is sent thereafter.

7. Assessment process

The assessment process for program staff and administrative staff recruitment shall have all or any of the following assessments:

- Written test
- Skill Test
- Interview

Non-teaching staff shall be recruited based on the assessment of their skills and references.

8. The Assessment and Interview Panel

The interview panel as per university rules must meet in advance in order to prepare and agree questions, tests etc. to be asked to be covered for each candidate for the same position.

For the test and interview – the appropriate panel must be constituted which should have subject specialists. The final interview panel will comprise of the appointing authority and subject specialists.

9. The Interview Rating Form

The Interviewer's rating form is aimed to achieve two things

- i. To map the process through which the candidate passes, and
- ii. To create a comprehensive document, with all the interviewers' ratings along with the comments substantiating the ratings thereof.

This format is very crucial and needs to be filled immediately after the interview. The interview panel then gives its recommendations in the prescribed form.

10. Proceedings of Interview

Detailed proceedings of the interview will be recorded by the Chairperson of the Interview Board and will be attested by the Interview Board Members.

11. Checking of References

The Institute shall make reference checks with the referees given/ obtained from the candidate. As a policy, HRPIPER will contact the current employer as a part of reference check.

12. Medical Fitness

Before issuance of offer letter, selected candidates at their own cost have to undergo a pre-employment medical examination according to prescribed medical standards by the organization.

13. Letter of Appointment

The selected candidate must bring the relieving order\ from the previous organization before joining duty.

An appointment letter duly signed by the Appointing Authority is issued to the candidate subject to the reference checks and pre-employment medical examination.

The Appointment letter should contain:

- 1) The designation/ title of the job and responsibilities specific to the job
- 2) The level of commands / reporting to and taking responsibilities in the absence of head of the department.

The letter of Appointment and Job Description (JD) should be signed by the employee as a sign of acceptance.

14. Joining Report

On joining, the candidate should give the joining report duly filled and signed before the head of the Department and Principal.
